The junior middleweight match-up went eight rounds, with Sanders dominating the fight with his speed and fast, skilled punches. The judges' scorecards read 82-72 all for Sanders.

Sanders, who is often called "Chicago's slickest fighter," is a six-year Teamster at Elkay Manufacturing.

"Germaine is a very determined and well-trained boxer," said Robert A. Hogan, Teamsters Local 714 Secretary-Treasurer. "I am proud to have him as a member of our union."

Sanders will be the main event at the next Windy City Fight Night on Friday, December 16 at Cicero Stadium. Tickets can be purchased in person at the Cicero Stadium, and by phone at (773) 290-8272. Cicero Stadium is located at 1909 S. Laramie in Cicero. For more information about the event, visit www.windycityko.com.
